'A New Year'

By Deacon Bob Cox, State Spiritual/Faith Director

Happy New Year my Brother Knights and families! Hopefully, you will be able to keep all your New Year's resolutions that you have set for 2022! And I trust that Christmas was a spiritual, happy, and blessed day for all!

Back on March 19, 2021, Pope Francis had established the Year of the Family, on the Solemnity of St. Joseph. So, as we are in the middle of this 'year', let's concentrate on Mary for the time being...namely in February...and appreciate the Feast Day of Our Lady of Lourdes! I encourage you to pray a 9-day Novena starting on February 2nd. and lasting through February 10th. The Feast Day of Our Lady of Lourdes is on February 11th. and what better way to celebrate this Novena and the Feast Day than to have a meal on the Feast Day after your daily Mass. Not only should the Knights celebrate this Feast Day, but obviously, so should your Parish Family! Get your Council involved in supporting this Novena, the Feast Day, and a meal. Of course, you need to get your Deacon involved and he can then discuss your plans with the Parish Priest/Pastor to get his approval for everything. The Legion of Mary (I am a member) takes the lead for this Novena and meal in my parish, and it has been quite successful.

Pope Francis along with the Vatican Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life, have announced that the 2022 World Meeting of Families will be held from June 23-27, 2022, in Rome, Italy. It will focus on the theme of "Family Love: A Vocation and a Path to Holiness." This edition of WMOF (World Meeting of Families) will reflect on the spirituality of the family in conjunction with the call to holiness expressed in Gaudete et Exsultate.

Therefore, the Year of the Family will conclude on June 26,

2022, coinciding with the conclusion of the Tenth World Meeting of Families in Rome, Italy, with the Holy Father. Pope Francis established the Year of the Family to bolster and build up our faith and for us to live God's joy more fruitfully in family life.

The Pope says to pray as a family: take this opportunity to delve deeper in prayer with your wife, children, and grandchildren. Join Pope Francis to pray for families. Pray that families will be places of communion and prayer, schools of the Gospel, and domestic churches. Pray for Knight and parish families at your Council and Assembly meetings too! Here is a prayer for the Year of the Family:

"Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendor of true love; to you we turn with trust. Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too, may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel, and small domestic churches. Make us mindful of the sacredness of the family, and its beauty in God's plan. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, graciously hear our prayer. Amen."

And say a prayer for my wife Sue and I as we celebrated our 47th. Anniversary on January 11th!

From the State Deputy

Paul Burchell

Happy New Year Brother Knights,

I pray that everyone had a very Merry Christmas and you had a chance to celebrate with family and friends.

The first half of our fraternal year is now officially over, and I must let you know how proud the State Council, is of all your efforts over the past six months. As many of you know, it has been a goal for the last several years to hit the 10,000-member mark in our state. I am pleased to report that we reached that goal in December when Council 1668 in Greenville brought in our 10,000th member. And that is just the beginning of your accomplishments thus far.

Just like every council has quotas in order to earn “Star Council” status, the same is true for each jurisdiction (state/province/country). Achieving all our assigned quotas qualifies us to earn the coveted “Circle of Honor” award. And while we don’t do what we do for the awards themselves, earning the Star Council and Circle of Honor Awards shows that we are taking seriously Blessed Fr. Michael McGivney’s vision and putting our Faith into Action.

I want to share with you the progress the state has made so far in achieving our Circle of Honor requirements thanks to your dedicated efforts. The first number reflects the quota at the start of the fraternal year, while the second shows our accomplishments as of the end of December. This performance has placed South Carolina in 7th place in the Circle of Honor standings (out of 75 jurisdictions) and that is a big deal!

Membership Quota – 400/247

New Council Development 2/1

Exemplifications – 64/43

Holy Hours – 3/1

As you can see, we’ve had a great first half of the fraternal year, and while it is a cause for celebration, our work is not finished. There are still hundreds of men out there who are just waiting to be invited to become part of a group of dedicated Catholic men who demonstrate their values by supporting their families, parishes, and communities. Thank you for being you! We will take the opportunity to celebrate during our convention in April.

Now that we have reached the half-way point of the fraternal year, it is not too early to start thinking about the next one.

Jim Weiskircher, Vocations Director

PUTTING “VOCATION DIRECTORS” IN EVERY

HOME, SCHOOL, AND PARISH

In researching for this month’s article on vocations I came across a piece with the headline “Putting vocation directors in every home, school and parish” by Luke Burgis. This hit home because we all should be vocation directors in our parish. Our youth are struggling and need guidance from us. Whether it is a counselor working with scouts on religious emblems, RE teacher, or anyone that comes into contact with young people, we all can have a positive impact on the lives of those around us. The following are excerpts from that article. A Catholic diocese typically has one “vocation director” whose primary responsibility—at least the public perception of it—is to cultivate the vocations of people who are discerning the priesthood or religious life.

I’ve had a very positive experience with vocation directors. Two generous priests in the Diocese of Las Vegas helped me enter seminary formation and ultimately to leave it. But had I not decided to enter seminary, I would’ve never met them. Vocation directors have limited reach. In a thriving diocese, there might be one hundred seminarians and religious vocations. Where does that leave the dancers? The doctors? The young man who is petrified of proposing to the love of his life because he doesn’t know if her dad likes him?

This is where you and I come in.

I believe that the only way to create a culture of vocation—one in which everyone’s personal vocation is cultivated—is through a culture of mentorship. Vocation directors are critical, but they can’t do this work alone. They need co-workers. You have unrepeatably experiences and a vocation that someone in the world desperately needs to see lived out with heroic fidelity. As we live out our own callings, each of us should pray for the grace to be a mentor to someone else.

I believe that we need to broaden our understanding of who has responsibility to be a “vocation director.” Should there not be “direction” for people who are called to every state of life, every profession, every unique pathway to holiness? If we are to fulfill the dream of John Paul II, then we must think big. We have to put “vocation directors” in every home, school, and parish. They will be well-trained mentors who take up John Paul II’s call to cultivate the personal vocations of others. We must teach young people basic skills of discernment that they can carry with them for the rest of their lives.

Nobody is alone in this important work. A network of voca-

“At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea, where she entered Zechariah’s home and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. In a loud voice she exclaimed: “Blessed are you among women and blessed is the child you will bear! But why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord would fulfill his promises to her!”.” -Luke 1:39-45”

Brothers,

According to tradition, Mary was a mere 14 or so years old and Elizabeth was elderly and had been trying to conceive for quite some time. A priest that was saying Mass that I attended several weeks ago was saying in his homily that it was possible that this meeting between Jesus and John the Baptist was Jesus’ way of Baptizing or blessing John’s ministry. Jesus, always the servant, was doing his father’s will when he was still in the womb.

In today’s world view, both women were experiencing high risk pregnancies, and both would be eligible for a legal abortion paid for by you and me. This is where the fourth degree of the Knights of Columbus come in. If you were in Columbia last weekend, you would have seen the South Carolina Citizens for life’s 49th annual March for Life from the USC’s Russell house to the State Capitol building. It has become a tradition led by the 4th degree and supported by a vast number of Catholic citizens from around the state.

You may be wondering; how can I become a 4th degree Sir Knight and get in on this action as the visible arm of the Catholic Church? Well, I’m glad you asked.

We are planning another large fourth degree exemplification at Corpus Christi church in Lexington, on February 19th. The Knights in South Carolina are excited about getting back to “normal” and reviving the Mass – Exemplification - Banquet order that we had become used to in the past. Remember that ALL Knights who have gone through the new initiation degree are eligible to become “Sir Knights”. Recruiting this year has been abundant and so should the fourth-degree class.

Thank you all for asking new Knights to be Patriotic and proud.

The Honoree for this degree will be the former District Secretary Marcel Dube’.

Also, we will be having our first annual exemplification at the State convention in Myrtle Beach this Spring. We have just begun to plan, and the sign-up packet should be out soon.

Until next month, have a very safe and Happy New Year.

tion mentors is forming to provide support and training. We're there to be "midwives" to every personal vocation, whether it leads to a seminary, a baseball field, a business, or a dance studio.

Because of the dearth of resources on mentorship in the Catholic world and my own long journey of vocation (eight years in Silicon Valley, five years in seminary formation), I co-authored the book Unrepeatable: Cultivating the Unique Calling of Every Person. It draws the inspiration for its title from Saint John Paul II, who used the word "unrepeatable," repeatedly. Paying attention to the unrepeatable calling of every person is something that the great saint considered a key to creating a "culture of vocation."

Thomas Merton once wrote:

The object of salvation is that which is unique, irreplaceable, incommunicable—that which is myself alone. The true inner self must be drawn up like a jewel from the bottom of the sea, rescued from confusion, from indistinction, from immersion in the common, the non-descript, the trivial, the sordid, the evanescent. (New Seeds of Contemplation)

Our mission is to draw up from the bottom of the sea these unique and unrepeatable jewels, each one charged with the mystery and grandeur of God. Is there any work more exciting work than that?

It will be here before we know it. Councils should start now to identify and encourage those men who will lead them as Officers, Directors, and Chairmen in the new fraternal year. This will enable the council to hit the ground running on July 1, 2022.

The same is true for State Officers, Directors, and Chairmen. This past December, a notice was sent to all Grand Knights concerning nominations for State Officer positions. Any Third-Degree Knight in good standing is eligible to apply for any State Officer position; however, please ensure you understand the duties, responsibilities and expectations of the position you are seeking. We've posted a listing of these requirements on the state website, kofcsc.org, under the "Resources" tab. Applications should be submitted to our Nominations Committee Chairman, Daniel Barton via email at dbarton4221@gmail.com and are due by January 28, 2022. Additionally, there are State Director and Chairmen positions that will need to be filled for the new fraternal year. If you are interested in finding out more about these positions and the duties they entail, please contact me at pburchell68@gmail.com.

Brothers, just as a football team cannot achieve success with only half their positions filled, the same is true for our KofC team. We cannot continue to operate with several of our leaders filling two, three or four positions because other folks just want to stay on the sidelines. WE NEED YOU! I know there are men in every council who would be a great asset to the state team – do not wait to be asked! Join us to help serve God's people and your brother Knights.

Finally, please mark a couple of very important dates on your calendar: Grand Knights Midyear meeting – Saturday, February 5, 2022, at St. John Neumann School in Columbia; South Carolina Catholic Men's Conference – Saturday, March 5, 2022, Cardinal Newman High School, Columbia; and our State Convention, April 22-24th, Landmark Resort, Myrtle Beach.

Once again Happy New Year. Together we can make 2022 a banner year for the South Carolina Knights of Columbus. Thank you for all you do for our honored Order.

Vivat Jesu!
